

History

History Curriculum Overview

Year group		Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1		Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Early Years		Throughout the year, Early Years learn about: Memories Past New Remembering Change Old Long ago
1	Project title	Superheroes	Memory Box	Bright lights, big city	Rain and Sunrays	Paws, Claws and Whiskers	The Enchanted Woodland		Dinosaurs
	Subject focus		Recognise the distinction between past and present. Past and present Toys Victorian toys Changes over time						Significant events beyond living memory Past, Present, Future Artefact Fossils Extinction Significant person: Mary Anning
2	Project title	Let's Explore Our World	Towers, Turrets and Tunnels	Muck, Mess and Mixtures	Movers and Shakers		The Scented Garden	Beach Combers
	Subject focus		Castles and features of a castle Warwick Castle Monachy Significant people: William the Conqueror		The lives of significant individuals. Artists, Activist, Explorer, Monarch, Scientist Significant people: George/Richard Cadbury, Christopher Columbus, Neil Armstrong.
3	Project title	Scrumdiddlyumptous	Tribal Tales	Tremors		Urban Pioneers	Gods and Mortals		Flow	Mighty Metals
	Subject focus		Stone Age, Iron Age, Bronze Age Archaeology Stonehenge Settlements Tools				Study of Ancient Greece Ancient Greece The Trojan Horse Olympic Games Beliefs Significant person: Alexander the Great
4	Project title	Burps, bottoms and bile	I am a warrior	Potions		Misty Mountain Sienna	Traders and Raiders		Blue Abys
	Subject focus		Roman Empire and its impact on Britain The Roman Empire.				Anglo Saxons and Vikings Anglo-Saxons and the Vikings.

			Roman Army Invasion Significant people: Boudicca, Claudius, Julius Caesar.			Invade Culture Person of note: Aethelflaed
5	Project title	Amazon Adventure	Pharaohs	Stargazers	A Greener Future	Peasants, Princes and Pestilence	Mesmerising Mayans
	Subject focus		The achievements of the earliest civilizations hierarchy civilisation religion settlements Significant people : Hatshepsut- the first woman to rule Egypt as king and Tutankhamun			A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 British History. Medieval Black death. Feudal system. Medieval knight. Battle of 1066 Peasants revolt Significant person: Monarchs (Edward II / III)	A non-European society that provides contrasts with British history Hierarchy civilisation religion settlements Chichen Itza – Mexico Inventions: Number system, Hot chocolate Gods Exploration and discovery Significant person: Lady Six Sky
6	Project title	Off with Her head	Frozen Kingdom	Revolution	A Child's War	Scream Machine	Gallery Rebels
	Subject focus	The Tudors. Impact on modern day civilisation War of the Roses Battle of Bosworth Tudor dynasty Significant people: Henry VIII and his wives (Anne Boleyn		Victorian Britain. Lives of rich and poor British Empire Impact on modern day Significant people: Queen Victoria and Prince Albert Industrial Revolution Banardo. Emaline Pankhurst	World War II and its impact on modern Britain and the world. Evacuation Homefront Leaders

History Progression

	National Curriculum	Project	Key Themes	Area of Study	Knowledge	Skills	Project Specific Vocabulary	Subject Specific Vocabulary
Nursery	Understanding of the world	Why do you love me so much?	Everyday life Significant people	ELG: Past and Present	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling. 		Old New First Next
Reception	Understanding of the world	Will you read me a story?	Everyday life Significant people	ELG: Past and Present	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling. 		Past Present Old New First Next
		Can you switch it on?
		Are we there yet?
Year 1	Changes within living memory Significant events beyond living memory The lives of significant individuals	Memory Box	Everyday life Significant people	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Recognise the distinction between past and present. Identify some similarities and differences between ways of life at different times. Use some every day terms about the passing of time such as a long time ago and before.	Order and sequence some familiar events and objects.	baby toddler child adult memory new old parent	history past chronology memory timeline key events yesterday today tomorrow a long time ago same different change
				Events, people and changes	Describe some changes from living memory Aspects of everyday life include houses and entertainment	Make comparisons between life now and in the past.
				Enquiry, interpretation and using sources	Choose parts of stories and other sources to show what they know about the past. Understand that objects tell us things about the past.	Use sources to answer simple questions about the past. Make simple observations about people, events and communities. Identify some of the basic ways in which the past can be represented.
				Communication	Describe special and significant events.	Retell simple stories or events from the past. Use simple historical terms.
		Dinosaur Planet	Significant people	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Use some every day terms about the passing of time such as a long time ago and before.	Order and sequence simple events.	fossil archaeologist archaeology discovery extinct
				Events, people and changes	Retell some events from beyond their living memory that are significant nationally or globally.

					Describe aspects of a significant individual's life (Mary Anning)		extinction dinosaur
				Enquiry, interpretation and using sources	Choose parts of stories and other sources to show what they know about the past. Understand that objects tell us things about the past.	Use sources to answer simple questions about the past. Make simple observations about people, events and communities. Identify some of the basic ways in which the past can be represented.
				Communication	Describe special and significant events.	Retell simple stories or events from the past. Use simple historical terms.
Year 2	Changes within living memory Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national or international achievements Significant historical events, people and places in their locality	Towers, Turrets and Tunnels (with a focus on monarchs)	monarchy invasion power war	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Recognise that their own lives are similar and or different from the lives in the past. Use common words and phrases concerned with the passing of time. Understand what a timeline is and that it can show different periods of time, from a few years to millions of years.	Sequence significant events in chronological order (timeline of Warwick castle and monarchs).	arch archer arrow Bailey battlements burrow castle drawbridge fortress keep Gatehouse Enemy Invade Lord Knight king medieval moat motte passage portcullis queen rampart turret	Past Present Future Important Event Era Artefacts Time Order Year Decade century
				Events, people and changes	Develop awareness of significant historical events, people and changes in their own locality. Aspects of everyday life from the past such as houses, jobs, shops, objects, transport and entertainment, may be similar or different to those used and enjoyed by people today. Understand hierarchy is a way of organising people according to importance (monarchy). Understand what hierarchy is and the role of monarch or leader. Be able to describe the hierarchy of a past society. Describe how an aspect of life has changed over time (the use of castles).	Make comparisons between life now and in the past (compare monarchs/castles).
				Enquiry and Interpretation	Consider why things may change over time (the use of castle). Choose parts of stories and other sources to show what they know about significant people and events.	Ask and answer simple questions about the past through observing and handling a range of sources.

				Communication	Talk about what/ who was significant in simple historical accounts (monarchs, Earl of Warwick)	Demonstrate simple historical concepts and events through role play, drawing and writing Use a variety of historical terms and concepts (see vocabulary list).
				Artefacts and sources	Understand what historical sources are and that they can give clues about the past (artefacts from Warwick Castle, newspaper articles ect)	Use a range of historical artefacts (artefacts, written accounts, photographs, paintings or ruins) Examine an artefact and suggest what it is, where it is from and why it was made and who owned it (artefacts from Warwick Castle, newspaper articles ect)
	Movers and Shakers	Significant people			Chronological knowledge and understanding	Recognise that their own lives are similar and or different from the lives in the past. Use common words and phrases concerned with the passing of time.	Sequence significant events in chronological order.	Discover Invent Monument Plaque Protest Significant Activist Campaign significant
					Events, people and changes	Demonstrate awareness of the lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. Develop awareness of significant historical events, people and changes in their own locality.	Use Dawson's model to organise and sort historical information and make judgements about significance and impact of an individual on history
					Enquiry and interpretation	Consider why things may change over time. Recognise some basic reasons why people in the past acted as they did. Choose parts of stories and other sources to show what they know about significant people and events.	Ask and answer simple questions about the past through observing and handling a range of sources.
					Communication	Talk about what/ who was significant in simple historical accounts	Demonstrate simple historical concepts and events through role play, drawing and writing Use a variety of historical terms and concepts.
					Artefacts and sources	Understand what historical sources are and that they tell us about the past.	Use a range of historical artefacts (artefacts, written accounts, photographs, paintings or ruins) Examine an artefact and suggest what it is, where it is from and why it was made and who owned it Use historical sources to begin to identify a viewpoint

Year 3	Ancient Greek life and influence on western world Changes in Britain from stone age to Iron age	God's and Mortals	hierarchy religion power democracy war	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Demonstrate awareness that the past can be divided in to different periods of time, Explore trends and changes over time.	Use some dates and historical terms when ordering events and objects	amphora artefact cavalry City-state conquer deity Demeter formation Hades hoplites labyrinth legend minotaur mortal Poseidon warrior Zeus	Chronological Significant Power Development Compare Contrast Influence BC and AD Ancient Civilisation
				Events, people and changes	Describe some of the characteristic features and achievements of the earliest civilisations including where and when they appeared. Demonstrate more in depth knowledge of one ancient civilisation e.g. Greeks Understand the consequences of a significant event/s Describe how aspects of history change over time (rule, government, jobs, health, art and culture Describe the everyday lives of people from the past historical periods	Compare some of the characteristic features and achievements of the earliest civilisations including where and when they appeared. Explain the cause and effect of a significant historical event
				Enquiry and interpretation	Recognise that different versions of past events may exist. Describe some of the ways that the past can be represented.	Devise or respond to historically valid questions
				Communication		Discuss some historical events, issues, connections and changes. Select and organise historical information to present in a range of ways. Use relevant historical terms and vocabulary linked to chronology.
				Artefacts and sources	Recognise that our knowledge of the past is constructed from different sources of evidence. Introduce the terminology primary and secondary sources	Use sources to address historically valid questions. Make deductions and draw conclusions from historical sources (interviews, diaries, letters, journals, speeches, autobiographies, artefacts, photographs and witness statements) Begin to draw conclusions about the reliability of historical sources or artefact

		Tribal Tales	trade civilisation settlements	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Demonstrate awareness that the past can be divided in to different periods of time, Explore trends and changes over time.	Use some dates and historical terms when ordering events and objects	Archaeologist bone bronze Bronze Age barrow Cave art Celts cremate excavation flint fort harpoon historical site hunter-gathered iron Iron Age Mesolithic Microliths Monument Neolithic Nomadic Palaeontologist Palaeolithic Prehistoric Prehistory Preserved records ruins settlement Stone Age Stonehenge tribe
				Events, people and changes	Describe and give reasons for some of the changes in Britain from the stone age to the iron age. Describe some of the characteristic features and achievements of the earliest civilisations including where and when they appeared. Understand how the lives of people in the Stone Age, Bronze Age and Iron Age changed and developed over time due to the discovery and use of materials Describe the everyday lives of people from the past historical periods Describe ways in which human invention and ingenuity have changed how people live	Compare some of the characteristic features and achievements of the earliest civilisations including where and when they appeared.
				Enquiry and interpretation	Recognise that our knowledge of the past is constructed from different sources of evidence. Understand and explain the significance settlements in Britain Explain the similarities and differences between two periods of history	Use sources to address historically valid questions. Devise or respond to historically valid questions Explain the similarities and differences between two periods of history
				Communication		Discuss some historical events, issues, connections and changes. Select and organize historical information to present in a range of ways. Use relevant historical terms and vocabulary linked to chronology.
				Artefacts and sources	Recognise that our knowledge of the past is constructed from different sources of evidence. Revisit the terminology primary and secondary sources	Make deductions and draw conclusions from historical sources (interviews, diaries, letters, journals, speeches, autobiographies, artefacts, photographs and witness statements) Begin to draw conclusions about the reliability of historical sources or artefact

Year 4	The Roman Empire and its impact on Britain Britain's settlement by the Anglo-Saxons and Scots The Viking and Anglo-Saxon struggle for the Kingdom of England	I am Warrior	hierarchy power empire trade invasion settlements war	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Identify where people and events fit into a chronological framework Explore links and contrasts within and across different periods of time (Stone Age and Ancient Greeks)	Place different periods of time on a timeline and remember key historical facts and some dates from a period studied.	Amphitheatre Aqueduct Barbarian Britannia Caledonian Celts Centurion Chariot Colosseum Emperor Forum Gladiator Gladus Invader Legion Mosaic Pilum Roman Empire Roman numerals Roman Scutum	Innovation Legacy Conquer Consequence Invasion Social Structure Chronological Significant Power Development Compare Contrast Influence BC and AD Ancient Civilisation
				Events, people and changes	Describe some aspects of the Roman Empire and recognise its impact on Britain. Demonstrate some knowledge of aspects of history significant to their locality (The Lunt Roman Fort) Understand that historical events have a cause or causes such as power, wealth, retaliation ect Explain in detail the multiple causes and effects of significant events (Boudicca's rebellion) Understand the profile of a leader and their significant achievements or events they played a role in (Caesar, Claudius and Augustus) Describe the hierarchy and different roles in an ancient civilisation (Ancient Roman Empire) The influences of the Roman civilisation on Britain Aspects of everyday life in a Roman town (such as jobs, houses, buildings, food and schooling) Explain the cause, consequence and impact of invasion and settlement in Britain	Compare and contrast two different civilisations (Greeks and Romans) Use Dawson's model or pyramid model to decide what aspects/inventions the Romans brought to Britain was the most significant.
				Enquiry and interpretation	Recognise why some events happen and what happens as a result.	Ask and answer historically valid questions about changes over time and suggest and plan ways to answer them Ask and answer more complex questions through independent research
				Communication		Discuss significant aspects of and connections between different historical events.

						Select and organize relevant historical information to presenting a range of ways. Use relevant and appropriate historical terms and vocabulary linked to chronology
				Artefacts and sources	Recognise how sources of evidence are used to make historical claims. Revisit terminology of Primary and Secondary sources.	Use sources to address historically valid questions and hypotheses. Choose the best sources to answer questions about the past which go beyond simple observations Make deductions and draw conclusions from historical sources (interviews, diaries, letters, journals, speeches, autobiographies, artefacts, photographs and witness statements)
		Traders and Raiders	Trade Invasion settlements power	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Identify where people and events fit into a chronological framework (link to Roman Britain) Explore links and contrasts within and across different periods of time.	Place different periods of time on a timeline and remember key historical facts and some dates from a period studied.	Angle Anglo-saxon Arthurian Attack Battleaxe Charm Chieftain Dark Ages Germanic Indigenous Invader Jute Longhouse Middle ages Monk Offa's Dyke Plunder Runestone Saxon Saxon shore fort Scholar Traders Viking
				Events, people and changes	Describe some aspects of Britain's settlement by Anglo Saxons and Scots. Understand that historical events have a cause or causes such as power, wealth, retaliation ect Describe the hierarchy and different roles in an ancient civilisation (Viking Social Structure)
				Enquiry and interpretation	Recognise why some events happen and what happens as a result (invasions) Identify historically significant people and events in different situations (Anglo Saxon Kings)	Ask and answer historically valid questions about changes over time and suggest and plan ways to answer them Ask and answer more complex questions through independent research
				Communication		Discuss significant aspects of and connections between different historical events. Select and organize relevant historical information to presenting a range of ways.

						Use relevant and appropriate historical terms and vocabulary linked to chronology
				Artefacts and sources	Recognise how sources of evidence are used to make historical claims. Choose the best sources to answer questions about the past which go beyond simple observations	Use sources to address historically valid questions and hypotheses. Make deductions and draw conclusions from historical sources (interviews, diaries, letters, journals, speeches, autobiographies, artefacts, photographs and witness statements)
Year 5	The achievements of the earliest civilizations A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 A non-European society that provides contrasts with British history	Pharaohs	hierarchy empire religion power trade	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Identify where people and places and periods of time fit in to a chronological framework Describe links and contrasts within and across different periods of time including short term and long term time scales (Greeks & Romans)	Use dates and appropriate historical terms to sequence events and periods of time. Independently place historical events or change a timeline remembering key facts from a period studied.	afterlife Anubis Cleopatra VII curse Deity excavation hierarchy hieroglyphics Hatshepsut Howard Carter Khafra Lord Carnarvon Ma'at mummification Pharaoh pyramid Rameses II Rosetta Stone ritual sarcophagus sphinx Tefnut Thutmose III tomb Tutankhamun Valley of the Kings Vizier	Rise and Fall Exploration Hierarchy Bias Prejudice Oppression Empire Rebellion Retreat Continuity
		hierarchy civilisation religion settlements		Events, people and changes	Everyday life, including culture, language, settlements, trade and belief systems could change during different periods due to invasion, natural disasters or changes in leadership. However, some aspects of everyday life could continue, for example, if invaders respected and adopted a country's culture and language. Explain how everyday life in an ancient civilisation changed or continued during different periods. Demonstrate knowledge of ancient achievements and their influence on the Western World. Power in ancient civilisations drove the growth of empires and the development of trade, wealth, arts and culture, society, technology and beliefs. Misuse of power and poor leadership caused these aspects of civilisation to decline. Describe the significance, impact and legacy of power in ancient civilisations. The characteristics of past civilisations include cities, rule and government, forms of writing, numerical systems, calendars, architecture, art, religion, inventions and set social structures. Study a feature of a past civilisation or society.	Explore and explain how the religious, political, scientific or personal beliefs of a significant individual caused them to behave in a particular way

					The characteristics of ancient civilisations include cities, government, language, writing, customs, numerical systems, calendars, architecture, art, religion, inventions and social structures, all of which have influenced the world over the last 5000 years. Create an in-depth study of the characteristics and importance of a past or ancient civilisation or society (people, culture, art, politics, hierarchy).
				Enquiry and interpretation	Explore and explain how the religious, political, scientific or personal beliefs of a significant individual caused them to behave in a particular way	Aspects of history that can be compared and contrasted include rulers and monarchs, everyday life, homes and work, technology and innovation. Compare and contrast an aspect of history across two or more periods studied.
				Communication		Discuss and debate historical issues Use appropriate vocabulary when discussing and describing historical events. Construct responses to historical questions and hypotheses that involve selection and organization of relevant historical information including dates and terms. Choose relevant ways to communicate historical findings.
				Artefacts and sources	Recognise how knowledge of the past is constructed from a range of sources. Sources of historical information can have varying degrees of accuracy, depending on who wrote them, when they were written and the perspective of the writer. Explore the validity of a range of historical reports and use books, technology and other sources to check accuracy. Understand how Bias is the act of supporting or opposing a person or thing in an unfair way. A balanced argument is a response to a question or statement where you consider both viewpoints about a historical event or person. Find evidence from different sources, identify bias and form balanced arguments.	Choose relevant sources of evidence to support particular lines of enquiry. Use a wider range of sources as a basis for research, to answer questions and to test hypotheses. Evaluate a range of sources (primary and secondary) and make inferences about a person or historical event.
				Peasants, Princes and Pestilence	hierarchy politics	Chronological knowledge and understanding

				Describe links and contrasts within and across different periods of time including short term and long term time scales	Independently place historical events or change a timeline remembering key facts from a period studied.	Plague The Black Death Poll tax Revolt Serf Villain Feudal System Peasant
			Events, people and changes	Aspects of British history and related sites that may have local significance include Black Death of 1346–1353 (plague pits). Everyday life, including culture, language, settlements, trade and belief systems could change during different periods due to invasion, natural disasters or changes in leadership. However, some aspects of everyday life could continue, for example, if invaders respected and adopted a country's culture and language. The characteristics of past civilisations include cities, rule and government, forms of writing, numerical systems, calendars, architecture, art, religion, inventions and set social structures. Study a feature of a past civilisation or society.
			Enquiry and interpretation	Explore and explain how the religious, political, scientific or personal beliefs of a significant individual caused them to behave in a particular way Key aspects of British history include the rise, fall and actions of the monarchy; improvements in technology; exploration; disease; the lives of the rich and poor and changes in everyday life. Create an in-depth study of an aspect of British history beyond 1066.	Aspects of history that can be compared and contrasted include rulers and monarchs, everyday life, homes and work, technology and innovation. Compare and contrast an aspect of history across two or more periods studied.
			Communication		Discuss and debate historical issues Use appropriate vocabulary when discussing and describing historical events. Construct responses to historical questions and hypotheses that involve selection and organization of relevant historical information including dates and terms. Choose relevant ways to communicate historical findings.
			Artefacts and sources	Recognise how sources of evidence are used to make historical claims.	Use sources to address historically valid questions and hypotheses.

				Choose the best sources to answer questions about the past which go beyond simple observations	Make deductions and draw conclusions from historical sources (interviews, diaries, letters, journals, speeches, autobiographies, artefacts, photographs and witness statements) Choose relevant sources of evidence to support particular lines of enquiry
	Mesmerising Mayans	hierarchy civilisation religion settlements	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Identify where people and places and periods of time fit in to a chronological framework Describe links and contrasts within and across different periods of time including short term and long term time scales (Greeks, Romans & Egyptian)	Use dates and appropriate historical terms to sequence events and periods of time. Independently place historical events or change a timeline remembering key facts from a period studied. Different world history civilisations existed before, after and alongside others. For example, the ancient Sumer existed from c4500 BC to c1900 BC and the ancient Egyptians from c3100 BC to 30 BC. Sequence and make connections between periods of world history on a timeline.	Independence Aztecs Maya Maya calendar El Castillo (temple) Mariachi Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) Dia de la Independencia (Independence Day) Fiesta de Santa Cecilia (Festival of Saint Cecilia) Equinox Tikal glyphs Patron saint heritage
			Events, people and changes	Describe key aspects of a non-European society Everyday life, including culture, language, settlements, trade and belief systems could change during different periods due to invasion, natural disasters or changes in leadership. However, some aspects of everyday life could continue, for example, if invaders respected and adopted a country's culture and language. Explain how everyday life in an ancient civilisation changed or continued during different periods. Demonstrate knowledge of ancient achievements and their influence on the Western World. Describe the significance, impact and legacy of power in ancient civilisations. The characteristics of past civilisations include cities, rule and government, forms of writing, numerical systems, calendars, architecture, art,	Explore and explain how the religious, political, scientific or personal beliefs of a significant individual caused them to behave in a particular way.

					religion, inventions and set social structures. Study a feature of a past civilisation or society. The characteristics of ancient civilisations include cities, government, language, writing, customs, numerical systems, calendars, architecture, art, religion, inventions and social structures, all of which have influenced the world over the last 5000 years. Create an in-depth study of the characteristics and importance of a past or ancient civilisation or society (people, culture, art, politics, hierarchy).
				Enquiry and interpretation	Explore and explain how the religious, political, scientific or personal beliefs of a significant individual caused them to behave in a particular way	Aspects of history that can be compared and contrasted include rulers and monarchs, everyday life, homes and work, technology and innovation. Compare and contrast an aspect of history across two or more periods studied.
				Communication		Discuss and debate historical issues Use appropriate vocabulary when discussing and describing historical events. Construct responses to historical questions and hypotheses that involve selection and organization of relevant historical information including dates and terms. Choose relevant ways to communicate historical findings.
				Artefacts and sources	Recognise how sources of evidence are used to make historical claims. Choose the best sources to answer questions about the past which go beyond simple observations	Use sources to address historically valid questions and hypotheses. Make deductions and draw conclusions from historical sources (interviews, diaries, letters, journals, speeches, autobiographies, artefacts, photographs and witness statements) Choose relevant sources of evidence to support particular lines of enquiry
Year 6	A significant turning point in British history	Off with Her Head	invasion war religion monarchy power politics	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Develop chronological secure knowledge of the events and periods of time studied. Analyse links and contrasts within and across different periods of time including short term and long term time scales.	Use dates and a wide range of historical terms when sequencing events and periods of time		Ideologies (Political, Religious and cultural) Cultural Context Birthright

	The changing power of monarchs using case studies such as John, Anne and Victoria			Events, people and changes	Demonstrate knowledge of an aspect of theme that extends their chronological understanding beyond 1066. Leaders and monarchs have changed the course of history in a variety of ways, including invading other countries; oppressing groups of people; advocating democracy; inspiring innovation or introducing new religious or political ideologies. Describe and explain the significance of a leader or monarch. The consequences of resistance, refusal and rebellion against leaders or hierarchies are far reaching and can include war, conflict, oppression, change and improvements in people's lives. Describe how the resistance, refusal or rebellion of individuals, groups and civilisations can affect a society or practice. Decisions can be made for a variety of reasons, including belief, lack of options, cultural influences and personal gain. Decisions are influenced by the cultural context of the day, which may be different to the cultural context today, and should be taken into account when making a judgement about the actions of historical individuals. Examine the decisions made by significant historical individuals, considering their options and making a summative judgement about their choices.	Address and sometimes devise historically valid questions about change, cause, similarity and difference, and significance.	Advocate Democracy Interpretation Commemorate
				Enquiry and interpretation	Give some reasons for contrasting arguments and interpretations of the past. Describe the impact of historical events and changes. Recognise that some events, people and changes are judged as more significant than others.	Regularly address and sometimes devise historically valid questions and hypotheses.
				Communication	Use abstract terms such as empire, civilisation, parliament, peasantry, conquest, continuity, discovery, interpretation, invasion, nation, significance and sacrifice. Use abstract terms to express historical ideas and information. Common aspects of history, such as leadership, belief, lifestyle and significant events, are features of different historical time periods. Many of these threads have features in common, such as the invasion of a country by a	Acknowledge contrasting evidence and opinions when discussing and debating historical issues. Use appropriate vocabulary when discussing, explaining and describing historical events. Construct informed responses to historical questions and hypotheses that involve thoughtful selection and organization of relevant historical

				leader and an army, but may also have differences, such as the success of an invasion. Compare and contrast leadership, belief, lifestyle or significant events across a range of time periods.	information including appropriate dates and terms. Choose the most appropriate ways of communicating different historical findings,
			Artefacts and sources	Sources of historical information should be read critically to prove or disprove a historically valid idea by setting the report into the historical context in which it was written, understanding the background and ideologies of the writer or creator and knowing if the source was written at the time of the event (primary evidence) or after the event (secondary evidence). Think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments and present a perspective on an aspect of historical importance. Questions can be used to evaluate the usefulness of a historical source. Examples include 'Who created the source? Why was the source created? Does the source contain any bias? When was the source created? Is the source similar to others made at the same time? Does the source contain any information that is untrue?' Ask perceptive questions to evaluate an artefact or historical source. Different types of bias include political, cultural or racial. Identify different types of bias in historical sources and explain the impact of that bias.	Sources of historical information should be read critically to prove or disprove a historically valid idea by setting the report into the historical context in which it was written, understanding the background and ideologies of the writer or creator and knowing if the source was written at the time of the event (primary evidence) or after the event (secondary evidence). Think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments and present a perspective on an aspect of historical importance.
	Revolution	hierarchy monarchy politics	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Develop chronological secure knowledge of the events and periods of time studied. Analyse links and contrasts within and across different periods of time including short term and long term time scales.	Timelines demonstrate the chronology and links between key civilisations, events and significant inventions in world history. Articulate and present a clear, chronological world history narrative within and across historical periods studied.	Victorian Industrial Revolution Suffrage Boarding school Blackboard Slums Hanging Transportation Great Exhibition Crystal Palace Steam railway Social reformer suffragette Empire Orphan Reign Queen Victoria Prince Albert
			Events, people and changes	Understand what Dawson's model is and how it is used in history. Leaders and monarchs have changed the course of history in a variety of ways, including invading other countries; oppressing groups of people; advocating democracy; inspiring innovation or introducing new religious or political ideologies. Describe and explain the significance of a leader or monarch.	Use Dawson's model to organise and sort historical information and make judgements about significance and impact of an individual on history – develop skill further

				Describe some of the significant achievements of mankind and explain why they are important. The British economy grew between the 16th and 19th centuries due to a range of factors including Britain's involvement in the slave trade, the plantation economy in the New World, Colonialism, new inventions and the Industrial Revolution. This growth had far-reaching consequences and changed many aspects of people's lives including the way they worked, travelled and spent their money. Describe the growth of the British economy and the ways in which its growth impacted on British life. Significant people, events, discoveries or inventions can affect many people over time. Examples include the invasion of a country; transfer of power; improvements in healthcare; advancements in technologies or exploration. Articulate the significance of a historical person, event, discovery or invention in British history.		Sir Robert Peel Charles Dickens Elizabeth Fry Isambard Kingdom Brunel Lewis Carroll William Morris Florence Nightingale Dr Banardo Thomas Edison Elementary Education Act The mines and collieries Act Houses of parliament Poor Law
			Enquiry and interpretation	Give some reasons for contrasting arguments and interpretations of the past. Describe the impact of historical events and changes. Recognise that some events, people and changes are judged as more significant than others.	Regularly address and sometimes devise historically valid questions and hypotheses. Common aspects of history, such as leadership, belief, lifestyle and significant events, are features of different historical time periods. Many of these threads have features in common, such as the invasion of a country by a leader and an army, but may also have differences, such as the success of an invasion. Compare and contrast leadership, belief, lifestyle or significant events across a range of time periods.
			Communication	Use abstract terms such as empire, civilisation, parliament, peasantry, conquest, continuity, discovery, interpretation, invasion, nation, significance and sacrifice. Use abstract terms to express historical ideas and information. Common aspects of history, such as leadership, belief, lifestyle and significant events, are features of different historical time periods. Many of these threads have features in common, such as the invasion of a country by a leader and an army, but may also have differences, such as the success of an invasion.	Acknowledge contrasting evidence and opinions when discussing and debating historical issues. Use appropriate vocabulary when discussing, explaining and describing historical events. Construct informed responses to historical questions and hypotheses that involve thoughtful selection and organization of relevant historical information including appropriate dates and terms.

				Compare and contrast leadership, belief, lifestyle or significant events across a range of time periods.	Choose the most appropriate ways of communicating different historical findings,
			Artefacts and sources	Sources of historical information should be read critically to prove or disprove a historically valid idea by setting the report into the historical context in which it was written, understanding the background and ideologies of the writer or creator and knowing if the source was written at the time of the event (primary evidence) or after the event (secondary evidence). Think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments and present a perspective on an aspect of historical importance. Questions can be used to evaluate the usefulness of a historical source. Examples include 'Who created the source? Why was the source created? Does the source contain any bias? When was the source created? Is the source similar to others made at the same time? Does the source contain any information that is untrue?' Ask perceptive questions to evaluate an artefact or historical source. Different types of bias include political, cultural or racial. Identify different types of bias in historical sources and explain the impact of that bias.	Sources of historical information should be read critically to prove or disprove a historically valid idea by setting the report into the historical context in which it was written, understanding the background and ideologies of the writer or creator and knowing if the source was written at the time of the event (primary evidence) or after the event (secondary evidence). Think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments and present a perspective on an aspect of historical importance.
	A Child's War	invasion power war politics	Chronological knowledge and understanding	Develop chronological secure knowledge of the events and periods of time studied. Analyse links and contrasts within and across different periods of time including short term and long term time scales.	Timelines demonstrate the chronology and links between key civilisations, events and significant inventions in world history. Articulate and present a clear, chronological world history narrative within and across historical periods studied.	Axis Powers Allied Powers Evacuation The Blitz Air Raid Air Raid shelters Countryside Evacuees Anderson shelters Propaganda Rationing Submarines Air force Concentration camp Nazi Rhineland Jew Treaty of Versailles
			Events, people and changes	War, oppression, conflict and rebellion can cause damage to buildings and property; kill, injure and oppress people or change people's beliefs, ways of life and identity. Evaluate the human impact of war, oppression, conflict and rebellion on the everyday life of a past or ancient society. Historical narratives can describe long- and short-term causes and consequences of an event; highlight the actions of significant individuals and explain how significant events caused great change over time. Present a

				detailed historical narrative about a significant global event. The causes of significant events can be long-term and revolve around set ideologies, institutions, oppression and living conditions or short-term, revolving around the immediate motivations and actions of individuals or groups of people. These long- and short-term causes can lead to a range of consequences for individuals, small groups of people or society as a whole. Describe the causes and consequences of a significant event in history.
			Enquiry and interpretation	Give some reasons for contrasting arguments and interpretations of the past. Describe the impact of historical events and changes. Recognise that some events, people and changes are judged as more significant than others.	Regularly address and sometimes devise historically valid questions and hypotheses. Common aspects of history, such as leadership, belief, lifestyle and significant events, are features of different historical time periods. Many of these threads have features in common, such as the invasion of a country by a leader and an army, but may also have differences, such as the success of an invasion. Compare and contrast leadership, belief, lifestyle or significant events across a range of time periods.
			Communication	Use abstract terms such as empire, civilisation, parliament, peasantry, conquest, continuity, discovery, interpretation, invasion, nation, significance and sacrifice. Use abstract terms to express historical ideas and information. Common aspects of history, such as leadership, belief, lifestyle and significant events, are features of different historical time periods. Many of these threads have features in common, such as the invasion of a country by a leader and an army, but may also have differences, such as the success of an invasion. Compare and contrast leadership, belief, lifestyle or significant events across a range of time periods.	Acknowledge contrasting evidence and opinions when discussing and debating historical issues. Use appropriate vocabulary when discussing, explaining and describing historical events. Construct informed responses to historical questions and hypotheses that involve thoughtful selection and organization of relevant historical information including appropriate dates and terms. Choose the most appropriate ways of communicating different historical findings,
			Artefacts and sources	Sources of historical information should be read critically to prove or disprove a historically valid idea by setting the report into the historical	Sources of historical information should be read critically to prove or disprove a historically valid idea by setting the

				context in which it was written, understanding the background and ideologies of the writer or creator and knowing if the source was written at the time of the event (primary evidence) or after the event (secondary evidence). Think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments and present a perspective on an aspect of historical importance. Questions can be used to evaluate the usefulness of a historical source. Examples include 'Who created the source? Why was the source created? Does the source contain any bias? When was the source created? Is the source similar to others made at the same time? Does the source contain any information that is untrue?' Ask perceptive questions to evaluate an artefact or historical source. Different types of bias include political, cultural or racial. Identify different types of bias in historical sources and explain the impact of that bias.	report into the historical context in which it was written, understanding the background and ideologies of the writer or creator and knowing if the source was written at the time of the event (primary evidence) or after the event (secondary evidence). Think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments and present a perspective on an aspect of historical importance.
--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--